Flood Waters

Genesis 6-7

Replica for Noah's Ark (in Holland) built by Johan Huibers in 2007

“Obedience of Noah’s kind appears laughable to many. Giving up one’s entire life and reputation for a cause with no guaranteed outcome may seem absurd. Yet still God asks for unwavering, holy obedience. Whether he wants us to build a boat or befriend a neighbor, prepare for rain or prepare for life in another culture, shut our families in an ark or shut off the television, he asks that we obey for as long as he asks it.” – Richard Foster
